Monrolx, September 2.—At a meeting of the National board of steam navigation to-day, the following resolutions, after being amended to the effect that the executive committee be instructed to prepare a memorial to congress for the purpose of putting them into practical operation, were adopted;

Resolved. That this board recommend the establishment of a national snug harbor for those worthy seamen and officers who became permanently disabled in the line of duty, the same to be instructed in the transplant of the traited diates marine hospital service.

Resolved, That this convention earnestly recommends to congress the duty of fostering a system of training for the navy and mercantile marine service, whereby, when once again our flag shall have attained a position on the sea commensurate with ber dignity and our merchant ships, and shall avoid the shame of having to man our guns with other than American seamen.

A series of resolutions were adopted unantinecessity of calling upon captains and crews of recry nation out own, to command and sail our merchant ships, and shall avoid the shame of having to man our guns with other than American sameen.

A series of resolutions were adopted unanimously in favor of the adoption by congress of a law regulating compulsory pilotage on the coast for vessels, and that the board advocate the regulation of all pilotage by the general government, the same as is done in Canada and the maritime countries of Europe.

The board again renews its efforts for an entire reform in our State laws respecting this subject, and recommends that congress on the subject, and recommends that congress on the subject, and recommends that congress on the cast of the part of the American people to return to the teachings of Franklin and cultivate a spirit of wise frugality, and now with the reign of prosperity renewed we are approaching a time when we shall be called upon to decide whether we shall keep the government in the hands of those who have administered it for the past twenty years or surrender it into the custody of untried men of different political faith. He desired to put himself on record. The time was when a stump speech was regarded with disdain, but he believed we could learn something from England.
